

When you successfully complete the course section "Welcome and Introduction to Your Wine Class" you will have learned

1. the philosophy and goals of Introduction to Wine,
2. how WebCT will be used,
3. how to be an online student,
4. course syllabus information, such as online quizzes, pencil and paper exams, grading philosophy, homework, the course modules schedule, if you will want to take this class for a grade or for credit/no credit, etc.,
5. how wine connects us to our European cultural roots and how children in Mediterranean cultures are introduced to wine,
6. the definition for wine, enology. sensory evaluation, organoleptic characteristics, and viticulture,
7. the definitions of generic, varietal, table, appetizer, fortified wines, sparkling, and dessert wines
8. that you will need to make a discussion posting to introduce yourself to the class,
9. that you may make a discussion posting about any lab meeting including the first introductory class,
10. that you have a homework assignment due in one week at the first tasting lab "White Table Wine Aromas,"
11. that you need to study some online lessons and to take an online quiz before the first tasting lab, and
12. that you are glad you signed up for Intro to Wine and want to bring your friends to class to add ☺.